

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to highly recommend Bethany Sewald for any position she pursues within the creative industry. As her manager, I have had the pleasure of working closely with Bethany for about a year and I can confidently say that she is one of the most skilled, reliable, and dedicated professionals I've had the privilege of working with.

Bethany has proven herself to be an exceptional retoucher, consistently delivering top-tier results for our team. Beyond simply executing retouching tasks, she took the initiative to refine and take full ownership of the retouching process, working collaboratively with our designers to streamline workflows and ensure efficiency. Her attention to detail, creativity, and ability to adapt quickly to requests have made a significant impact on our department, creating an ease in this area that has made our team's work far more effective.

In addition to her technical skills, Bethany has gone above and beyond by creating tutorials and leading department-wide instructional sessions for our creative team. Her dedication to fostering collaboration and knowledge-sharing has made her an invaluable resource in building a more collaborative work environment. Her leadership and mentoring have made a tangible difference in our cross-functional work.

Bethany is not only highly skilled but also an absolute pleasure to work with. She is hardworking, pleasant, and consistently goes above and beyond to support her colleagues. Her kindness and approachability have made her a favorite among her peers, and she is widely respected for both her professional expertise and her positive attitude.

It is with mixed emotions that I write this recommendation, as I am truly saddened to be losing such a valuable member of our team. Bethany would be an incredible asset to any studio or creative team, and I have no doubt she will continue to excel in all her future endeavors.

If you have any questions or would like to discuss her qualifications further, please don't hesitate to reach out.

Sincerely,

Rachel Nadeau
612.701.5446